Ken HART

908 Hillcrest Ct, Tallahassee FL; Attended University of Florida, BA, 1966, Political Science and University of Florida, JD, 1969, Law. He had a brief stint working at UF, post-law school, 1969-1970 and then had a law practice in Tallahassee, 1970-2011. Retired, April 2011 (loving it, but takes on projects of personal choice and special interest). Married Dinah Roberts Hart in 1982 (a Georgia Bulldog but married him anyway). Son, Ryan Hart, Jacksonville, FL, is married (Lori) with two boys, Spencer (10) and Nathan (7). Two step-daughters, Skyler, Atlanta, married (Josh); and Lindsay, Seattle; single, so far. Built their "cabin in the mountains" of Western North Carolina about 6 years ago, anticipating retirement, spend time in that area, year around. Traveling, especially now that both retired and have more time. Trips have included visits (some more than once) to England, Scotland, Germany, France, Italy, Czech Republic, Greece, Turkey; and a trip to China and Hong Kong that's coming up in October of this year. Dinah has made trips to Russia and Israel, as well. Travel in the U.S., too, with some recent visits to several of the American West national parks: Yellowstone, Grand Tetons, Glacier, Bryce, Zion, and Denali in Alaska. A winter visit to Yellowstone for snow-shoeing and snowmobiling is planned for early next year. Otherwise, fishing, reading, visiting art galleries, musical performances (listening but, unfortunately, not playing), motorcycling, and hiking are much-loved recreations. A real highlight recently was a backpacking trip on the Appalachian Trail with Ryan and Spencer, earlier this summer.
